

Hiking through the Balkan hills

3 days / 2 nights

We roam the hills of the Balkans and visit the historic city of Elena, a settlement dating back to the 15th century. The clock tower (Chasovnikova kula) with an ancient clock mechanism (from 1812) rises at the highest point of the city. A short and unique holiday in Bulgaria.

YOUR PROGRAM

Day 1 - Arrival in the town of Elena

Arrival in Elena (140 km from Ruse). After accommodation, we will take a walk through the city center (about 1h). A typical, beautiful and inviting Balkan atmosphere awaits us here to be felt. Accommodation at a 3 * hotel for 2 nights.

Day 2 - Hike to th Chumerna peak

After breakfast, we start from the village of Mijkovtsi or from Tvarditsa Pass, if we want a shorter version, on an easy hike to the top of Chumerna. On the way, we do a stop near the Hristovski waterfall. We will pass through many picturesque places. Although the waterfall is only 9 m high, it is very beautiful, being also a protected area. In the evening we return to the hotel.

Hiking duration: 4 hours, +/- 900m

Day 3 - The last day
